RULES AND REGULATIONS

TRADING-WAIVER PERIODS

With the approval of the new Basic Agreement between the players and the clubs American League Only and National League Only waivers have been abolished.

USE OF DESIGNATED HITTER

Rule 6.10 provides that "Any League may elect to use the Designated Hitter Rule." (a) In the event of inter-league competition between any clubs of Leagues using the Designated Hitter Rule and clubs of Leagues not using the Designated Hitter Rule, the rule will be used as follows:

1. In exhibition games, the rule will be used or not used as in the practice of the home team.
2. In All-Star games, the rule will only be used if both teams and both Leagues so agree.

DESIGNATED HITTER FOR THE PITCHER RULE

(Adopted by the American League for the 1973 season.)

A hitter may be designated to bat for the starting pitcher and all subsequent pitchers in any game without otherwise affecting the status of the pitcher(s) in the game. A Designated Hitter for the pitcher must be selected prior to the game and must be included in the lineup cards presented to the Umpire-in-Chief.

The designated hitter named in the starting lineup must come to bat at least one time, unless the opposing club changes pitchers.

It is not mandatory that a club designate a hitter for the pitcher, but failure to do so prior to the game precludes the use of a Designated Hitter for that game.

Pinch hitters for a Designated Hitter may be used. Any substitute hitter for a Designated Hitter himself becomes a Designated Hitter. A replaced Designated Hitter shall not re-enter the game in any capacity.

The Designated Hitter may be used defensively, continuing to bat in the same position in the batting order, but the pitcher must then bat in the place of the substituted defensive player, unless more than one substitution is made, and the manager then must designate their spots in the batting order.

A runner may be substituted for the Designated Hitter and the runner assumes the role of the Designated Hitter.

A Designated Hitter is "locked" into the batting order. No multiple substitutions may be made that will alter the batting rotation of the Designated Hitter.

Once the game pitcher is switched from the mound to a defensive position this move shall terminate the DH role for the remainder of the game.

Once a pinch-hitter bats for any player in the batting order and then enters the game to pitch, this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

Once the game pitcher bats for the Designated Hitter this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

Once a Designated Hitter assumes a defensive position this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE

Rule 4.12 SUSPENDED GAMES

(a) A league shall adopt the following rules providing for completion at a future date of games terminated for any of the following reasons:

(1) A curfew imposed by law;

(2) A time limit permissible under league rules;

(3) Light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club. (Mechanical field device shall include automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment.)

(4) Darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on;

(5) Weather, if the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, and one of the following situations prevails:

(i) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score, and the home team has not scored.

(ii) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead, and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

(b) Such games shall be known as suspended games. No game called because of a curfew, weather, or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game under the provisions of Rule 4.10. A game called under the provisions of 4.12(a)(3) or (4) shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts.

(c) By amending NOTE to read as follows:

NOTE: Weather and similar conditions—4.12(a) (1 through 5)—shall take precedence in determining whether a called game shall be a suspended game. A game can only be considered a suspended game if stopped for any of the five (5) reasons specified in Section (a). Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied (unless situation outlined in 4.12(a)(5)(i) prevails) is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

(c) A suspended game shall be resumed and completed as follows:

(1) Immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same grounds;

or

(2) Immediately preceding the next scheduled double-header between the two clubs on the same grounds, if no single game remains on the schedule; or

(3) If suspended on the last scheduled date between the two clubs in the city, transferred and played on the grounds of the opposing club, if possible:

(i) Immediately preceding the next scheduled single game, or

(ii) Immediately preceding the next scheduled double-header, if no single game remains on the schedule.

(4) If a suspended game has not been resumed and completed on the last date scheduled for the two clubs, it shall be a called game.

(d) A suspended game shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. The completion of a suspended game is a continuation of the original game. The lineup and batting order of both teams shall be exactly the same as the lineup and batting order at the moment of suspension, subject to the rules governing substitution. Any player may be replaced by a player who had been in the game prior to the suspension. No player removed before the suspension may be returned to the lineup. A player who was not with the club when the game was suspended may be used as a substitute, even if he has taken the place of a player no longer with the club who would not have been eligible because he had been removed from the lineup before the game was suspended.

A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play. EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a SUSPENDED game in each of the following situations:

(1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored.

(2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

PLAYER LIMITS—ROOKIE QUALIFICATION

PLAYER LIMITS: The active player limit from opening day through August 31 is 25 players, and 40 players from September 1 through the end of the season. The minimum number of active players maintained by each club throughout the Championship Season shall be 24.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he had (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of a 25-player limit (excluding time in the military service).

"SAVE" RULE

(Adopted on recommendation of the BBWAA)

Rule 10.20 SAVES FOR RELIEF PITCHERS

Credit a Pitcher with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; and

(2) He is not the winning pitcher; and

(3) He qualified under one of the following conditions:

(a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning.

(b) He enters the game, regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, or at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces); or

(c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CURFEW RULE

All night games must be called at 1:00 AM local time. But if an inning is started prior to 1:00 AM, local time, it can be completed . . . Curfews shall be waived for the final series of the season in each of the two parks of two contesting teams . . . This is the only curfew in the American League.

PLAYERS TO WEAR EAR FLAPS

All National Association players will wear double ear flaps. Major League players are urged to wear the double ear flap protection, but are obliged only to wear the single ear flap (except all players not wearing ear flaps in 1982 are not compelled to do so now.)

RULES CHANGES FOR 1989:

The Official Playing Rules Committee met in New York on 1/26/89 and agreed to abolish the Game-Winning RBI.

The Major League Players Association elected to exercise their right to have the language of M.L. Rule 8.01 (b) (Balks) revert back to the wording of the rule in 1987.

WE'LL REMEMBER—

The 1989 Red Book is dedicated to the two great American Leaguers who were lost to baseball last summer—Edward Bennett Williams, owner of the Baltimore Orioles, who finally succumbed to the illness he had battled so courageously, for so long; and Bob Fishel, Executive Vice President of the A.L., who passed away as a result of long-time respiratory problems.

On September 7, 1988, American League owners and chief executive officers met in Montreal and expressed their sentiments about Mr. Williams and Mr. Fishel. Those sentiments appear below . . .

EDWARD BENNETT WILLIAMS

Edward Bennett Williams—truly a giant in the legal profession when he became the owner of the Baltimore Club in 1979. He promptly established himself as a vigorous and dynamic participant in League and Baseball matters. Members of the League were quickly able to gauge the dimensions of not only his resourcefulness as an advocate, but also his ability to apply generous portions of common sense to issues and problems.

Through unselfish commitments of his time and talents, Baseball was the beneficiary of his service on the Executive Council and the Player Relations Committee, and his indefatigable efforts which resulted in the adoption by Baseball of club fiscal responsibility legislation. Through these and other activities, his searching inquiries and wise counsel assisted Baseball in traversing numerous and nettlesome thickets.

EBW has furnished Baseball with one final legacy: to the end, he was planning well into the future; and his recent successful negotiations will ensure a new stadium for the Orioles in Baltimore and the continued health of the Orioles in that city.

ROBERT O. FISHEL

Robert O. Fishel—truly a career Baseball man. It began in 1946 with a public relations association with his hometown Cleveland Indians. Next came a public relations stint with the St. Louis Browns, followed by 20 years and a Vice Presidency with the New York Yankees. He moved to the League Office in 1974 and successively became Special Assistant to the President, League Secretary, and from 1983, Executive Vice President.

For over 40 years Bob applied his enthusiasm, talent and dedication to Baseball. Had he been a player, he would have been the quintessential utility man. His versatility and devotion insured that the myriad of tasks he took on in and for Baseball were performed superbly. His unwarranted modesty contributed to a personality which, coupled with his integrity, resulted in a man who over a lifetime never knew anyone who was not a friend.

Indeed, the friendship and esteem of his colleagues resulted in the establishment of the Robert O. Fishel Award for Public Relations Excellence; and the first recipient in 1981, was quite properly, Bob Fishel.

In anticipation of the 1989 season, OUR COVER depicts all 14 American League team media guides. Thanks to everyone who helped to make these available in time for the publication of the 1989 Red Book.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

FRANK ROBINSON—Born August 31, 1935, Beaumont, Texas; Residence: Los Angeles, CA; Married (Barbara), two children . . . Height: six feet, one inch; Weight: 195 pounds . . . Named Orioles' Manager on April 12, '88, replacing Cal Ripken Sr.

Frank Robinson began the 1988 season as special assistant to the late Orioles' Chairman Edward Bennett Williams. It was the first time since 1952 that Frank wasn't in uniform on opening day. His hiatus didn't last long. One week into the season, Robinson was named the eighth manager of the Orioles. This is Robinson's third major league managerial assignment. He has managed the Cleveland Indians ('75-'77), and San Francisco Giants ('81-'84), as well as the Rochester Red Wings ('78), Santurce Crabbers in the Puerto Rican League for eight winters, and the Culiacan club in the Mexican Pacific Winter League ('77-'78). His record as a major league manager is 504-567. He became baseball's first black manager in '75 at Cleveland and in '76, Frank guided the Tribe to an 81-78 record, their 2nd best record in the last 20 years. He managed Rochester, the Orioles affiliate in the International League in '78 and was an Orioles coach in '79 and '80 before returning to the managerial ranks again in '81 at San Francisco. He enjoyed his best season with the Giants in '82 when the club went 87-75 and finished third, two games out of first. After being released by the Giants in '84, he served the Milwaukee Brewers as batting coach the remainder of that season. He returned as a coach with the Orioles in '85 and held that position for three seasons.

Robinson's major league playing career spanned 21 seasons ('56-'76) including 10 at Cincinnati and six with Baltimore. Elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in '82, he currently ranks fourth on baseball's all-time home run list (586) and is the only player ever to win BBWAA "MVP" awards in both leagues. He won the N.L. award in '61 with the Reds and the A.L. trophy with the Orioles in '66, the season he won the triple crown. In addition, Frank was "MVP" in the '66 World Series and '71 All-Star Game.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

JOSEPH MICHAEL MORGAN—Born November 19, 1930, Walpole, MA and still resides there . . . Married (Dottie), four children . . . Height: five feet, ten inches: Weight: 180 pounds . . . Named to succeed John McNamara on July 14, 1988.

On July 14, 1988 Morgan became the 37th manager of the Red Sox when he replaced John McNamara as interim manager with the team tied for fourth place, 9 games behind Detroit, with a 43-42 record.

The rest of the season became known as "Morgan's Magic" as the Red Sox swept an 11-game homestand, won 12 straight and 19 of 20 to move into a first place tie with the Tigers. During the surge Morgan was named manager for the rest of 1988 on July 20, and then manager through 1989 on August 3.

The Red Sox were second throughout August, again moved into a tie for first with the Tigers September 4, and took over first for good September 5. The lead was as much as 6 games September 18. Despite losing 6 of the last 7 games, the Red Sox clinched their second Eastern Division title in three years September 30.

Morgan compiled a 46-31 .597 record and guided the Red Sox to 19 straight Fenway Park wins as part of a 24-game home victory string that set a new A.L. record. The Red Sox lost four straight to Oakland in the ALCS including two games by one run in Fenway. Morgan was named the A.L. Manager of the Year by U.P.I. and runnerup to Tony LaRussa by the Baseball Writers.

In 1974 Morgan joined the Red Sox organization and managed AAA Pawtucket from 1974-82. He spent two years as a scout and then joined McNamara's staff as first base coach in 1985. He was the bullpen coach in 1986, then took over the third base duties in 1987. Before joining the Red Sox he managed in the Pittsburgh system from 1966-73, except for 1972 when he was a major league coach with the Pirates. He won manager of the year honors in 1966-69-73-77. During 16 years as a minor league manager Morgan compiled an 1140-1102 .508 record.

Joe is a graduate of Walpole (MA) high school and Boston College (1953) and was a standout baseball and hockey player. He signed with the Boston Braves organization in 1952 and spent 15 seasons as a minor league infielder-outfielder with three .300 seasons. He had short stints in the majors with the Milwaukee Braves and K.C. A's in 1959, Philadelphia and Cleveland in 1960, Cleveland in 1961 and St. Louis in 1964.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

DOUGLAS LEE RADER—Born July 30, 1944 in Chicago, IL; Residence: Stuart, FL . . . Married (Jeannette), three children . . . Height: 6-3 Weight: 230 Named Angels' Manager on November 14, 1988.

Doug Rader becomes California's 12th manager as the club enters its 29th season. Last year he scouted for the Angels, covering the southeastern portion of the United States, including the Caribbean. Rader also provided instructional services to California's minor league affiliates . . . Originally signed as a free agent by the Houston Astros in September of 1964, Rader went on to play 10 seasons with three major league teams—Houston, San Diego and Toronto—including eight-plus campaigns with the Astros . . . With Houston, Rader won five consecutive National League Gold Gloves for outstanding fielding at third base from 1970-74. He also led N.L. third basemen in fielding percentage in 1970 and 1975, in putouts in 1970 and 1973, in assists in 1970 and 1972, in total chances in 1972, and in double plays in 1970 (tied) and 1972 . . . A career .251 hitter, Rader's playing career ended with Toronto in 1977. He coached with San Diego in 1978-79 and then was named manager of Hawaii, San Diego's triple-A affiliate, in 1980. The Islanders posted a 221-201 record during his tenure, including Pacific Coast League playoff appearances in 1980 and 1981 . . . On November 1, 1982, he was appointed manager of the Texas Rangers and promptly guided them to a 77-85 record and third-place finish in 1983. His three-year managerial record, including an interim stint with the Chicago White Sox in 1986, is 156-201.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

JEFFREY ALLEN TORBORG—Born November 26, 1941, Westfield, N.J. . . . Residence: Mountainside, N.J. . . . Married (Suzie), sons Doug, Greg, and Dale . . . Height: 6-0 . . . Weight: 195 . . . Named White Sox manager November 3, 1988.

Jeff Torborg was named the White Sox' 32nd manager November 3, 1988. Torborg, who spent the past 10 seasons as a coach with the New York Yankees, begins his second stint as a major league manager. The former catcher with the Dodgers and Angels tutored Cleveland from June 19, 1977 through July 23, 1979. He compiled a 157-201 record as the Indians' skipper. Prior to replacing Frank Robinson as the Indians' manager, Torborg spent two and one-half years as a Cleveland coach. He joined the Yankees' coaching staff August 1, 1979, just nine days after his dismissal as Cleveland manager. Torborg's major league playing career spanned 10 seasons, seven with the Dodgers and three with the Angels. He was a member of the Dodgers' 1965 world championship squad and their 1966 National League pennant winners. He caught three no-hitters (Sandy Koufax, Bill Singer, and Nolan Ryan), one shy of Ray Schalk's major league record. He was also the primary receiver when Koufax and Ryan established single-season strikeout records.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

ANTHONY La RUSSA, JR.—Born October 4, 1944, Tampa, FL; Residence: Sarasota, FL . . . Married (Elaine), two children . . . Height: 6-1, Weight: 190 . . . Named Manager July 1, 1986, succeeding Jackie Moore.

1988 was La Russa's finest ever at the helm of a major league club . . . Earned BBWAA and Sporting News Manager of the Year honors. With 1988's 104 wins, La Russa's career record with the A's now stands at 230-173, (.571) . . . Ranks 3rd among all Oakland Skippers in winning percentage. In 1988, guided the A's to their best season in the history of the Oakland club, when the Athletics led the majors in wins, and set a new A.L. West record with 104 wins. Also set a club record by spending 165 days in first place, moving into the top slot for good on April 21. This was Tony's ninth full year at the helm of a M.L. club. His career record now stands at 752-679 . . . Returning to the A's was something of a homecoming for Tony. Signed to his first pro contract by the then Kansas City A's on the night he graduated from high school in 1962. Made his M.L. debut just one year later with the A's. Went on to play professionally for 16 seasons, but never spent an entire year in the majors. After his stint with KC in '63, Tony didn't make it to the majors again until 1968, this time with the A's of Oakland. He went on to play parts of four years in Oakland before finishing out his playing career with Atlanta and the Chicago Cubs . . . Tony's managerial career began in 1978, when he took over the White Sox' double-A team in Knoxville. That team went 53-25, earning Tony a promotion to the White Sox' coaching staff. In 1979, Tony was named the manager of the Sox triple-A squad in Iowa. On 8/2/79 Tony took over the helm of the White Sox, replacing Don Kessinger, a position he held for 7 seasons. His most successful year with Sox was 1983, when the club posted a 99-63 record, best in baseball that season. He was rewarded by being named "Manager of the Year" by The Sporting News, the Associated Press, and the BBWAA. Had the '84 Sox tied for first place at the All-Star break, before finishing 5th with a 74-88 record. Relieved of his White Sox duties on June 19, 1986, and assumed the manager's duties in Oakland on July 7th, 1986 . . . Graduated from Florida State University's School of Law in 1978, and passed the bar exam in December of 1979. He is one of only five lawyer/managers in baseball history, the other four—Monte Ward (New York Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers, late 1880s), Hughie Jennings (Detroit, 1907-20), Miller Huggins (St. Louis Cardinals and New York Yankees, 1913-29) and Branch Rickey (St. Louis Browns, 1914-15)—are all in Baseball's Hall of Fame.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he had (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of 25-player limit (excluding time in the military service).

INFO!

LEAGUE EXPLAINS FORMAT FOR 1989 SCHEDULE

The A. L. schedule uses a balanced format in which each club plays twelve games against all 13 opponents, for a total of 156 games. This includes six home contests and six away against each opponent.

However, in order to reach the seasonal total of 162 games, it is necessary to add six games to the above 156 total. This is accomplished by having each club play six additional games within its division—three home and three away, one with each club in its division.

KEY TO MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE

A year of Major League service is equivalent to 172 days of the playing season. On the preceding roster pages, the column at the right indicates the length of the player's service. A designation reading "6.012" means six years and twelve days of M.L. service.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS

A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

The player's individual consecutive-game hitting streak shall be determined by the consecutive games in which the player appears and is not determined by his club's games.

WADE BOGGS—200 HITS . . . AGAIN!

In 1988 Boston's Wade Boggs led the American League with a .366 batting average to win his fourth consecutive batting title and his fifth in the last six years. Additionally, he racked up 214 hits and became the first player in the 20th Century to collect 200 or more hits in a single season for six straight years (1983-88). The only player in M.L. history to have more consecutive 200-hit seasons was Willie Keeler, who accomplished the feat for eight straight years (1894-1901) while playing with Baltimore and Brooklyn.

Boggs' .356 lifetime batting average places him in a tie for third on the all-time list with Joe Jackson. Only Ty Cobb (.367) and Rogers Hornsby (.358) are ahead of Wade.

Over the last seven years, Wade has amassed 1,392 hits for the Red Sox and has walked 647 times over the same period. He led the A.L. in road hitting in 1988 with a .351 average and was named to his fourth consecutive All-Star team last year.

RED SOX SET A.L. MARK WITH 24 CONSECUTIVE HOME WINS

The Boston Red Sox set an American League record as they won 24 consecutive home games in 1988. The winning streak began on June 25 under manager John McNamara and continued until August 13 under new manager Joe Morgan after McNamara was dismissed on July 14.

The 24 straight wins at home set an American League record previously held by the Philadelphia Athletics of 1931 (22). The modern major league record for consecutive home victories is 26 games and is held by the 1916 New York Giants.

OAKLAND'S WEISS IS ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

Shortstop Walt Weiss of the A.L. champion Oakland Athletics became the third consecutive Oakland A's player to be named A.L. Rookie of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association. Weiss follows in the footsteps of 1986 winner Jose Canseco and 1987 rookie of the year Mark McGwire. His decisive victory over California's Bryan Harvey marked the first time in the history of A.L. rookie voting that the same club produced three consecutive winners. Only the Washington Senators of 1958 (Albie Pearson) and 1959 (Bob Allison) ever had back-to-back A.L. rookies of the year.

The switch hitting, 25-year-old Weiss fielded .979 in 147 games last year, hitting .250 with 39 RBI's. He hit .333 in the four-game ALCS versus the Red Sox.

A's LA RUSSA IS BBWAA A.L. MANAGER OF YEAR

Tony La Russa, who piloted the 1988 Oakland Athletics to the best record in the American League (104-58), a four-games-to-none sweep of the Boston Red Sox in the League Championship Series, and their first A.L. pennant since 1974, won the Baseball Writers Association of America's A.L. Manager of the Year Award for a second time. Tony was the first A.L. recipient of the award when the voting began in 1983, the year his Chicago White Sox took the Western Division title. Sparky Anderson is the only other A.L. manager to win the award twice since its inception.

La Russa was named first on 15 of the 28 ballots cast. He also garnered eight second-place and four third-place votes. Boston's Joe Morgan, who took the helm of the Red Sox in mid-season and guided them to the Eastern Division championship, was second in the voting.

CANSECO ESTABLISHES "40/40 CLUB," WINS CRONIN AWARD FOR "SIGNIFICANT ACHIEVEMENT"

In addition to 1988 American League MVP honors, Oakland's Jose Canseco was the recipient of the eminent Joe Cronin Award for "significant achievement" during the 1988 season, for becoming the first player in M.L. history to hit 40 home runs and steal 40 bases in a single season.

Jose finished the season with 42 homers and 40 stolen bases as well as a .307 batting average.

The Joe Cronin Award is named for the Hall of Fame shortstop who served as American League President and Chairman of the Board. The only other Athletic to win the award was Rickey Henderson in 1982. Dr. Bobby Brown, President of the American League, presented Jose with the trophy in field ceremonies prior to game three of the ALCS in Oakland. A list of Joe Cronin Award winners follows . . .

JOSE CANSECO OF THE ATHLETICS IS NAMED 1988 AMERICAN LEAGUE MOST VALUABLE PLAYER

For the first time since 1973 an American Leaguer won the BBWAA Most Valuable Player Award unanimously—Oakland's Jose Canseco. Ironically, the 1973 recipient was another Athletics right fielder, Reggie Jackson.

Canseco established baseball's "40/40 Club" by stealing 40 bases and hitting 42 home runs in 1988. He also led the league in home runs, RBI (124), slugging pct. (.569), and extra-base hits (76). The 1986 Rookie of the Year was named to his second All-Star team in 1988. Jose also placed second in the league in runs scored with 120 (Wade Boggs-128) and total bases with 347 (Kirby Puckett-358). He also won the American League's prestigious Joe Cronin Award for significant achievement.

Canseco was one of five Athletics named on 1988 MVP ballots. (Dennis Eckersley, Dave Henderson, Mark McGwire and Dave Stewart). Boston's Mike Greenwell who helped the Red Sox to the Eastern Division title while finishing third in batting (.325), came in second in the balloting. Kirby Puckett of Minnesota placed third for the second straight year. The complete BBWAA A.L. MVP voting appears below.

DENNIS ECKERSLEY IS MOST VALUABLE IN 1988 CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Relief specialist Dennis Eckersley was named the Most Valuable Player of the 1988 American League Championship Series and received the Leland S. MacPhail, Jr. trophy in recognition of his MVP performance. The award was presented to Dennis by A.L. President Dr. Bobby Brown, in Oakland, immediately following the A's final fourth game win of that series.

Dennis earned a "save" in each of the four wins (to get the M.L. record for a 4-game series) and did not give up an earned run. In six innings pitched, he allowed just one hit and two walks, striking out five Red Sox batters.

Dennis earned 45 "saves" with a 2.63 ERA during the regular season and finished second in the A.L. Cy Young voting and fifth in the Most Valuable Player vote totals.

WHITE SOX' HAROLD BAINES IS 1988 OUTSTANDING DH

Chicago's Harold Baines was voted the 1988 Outstanding Designated Hitter, marking the second consecutive year he has won the award. Baines appeared in more games as a designated hitter in 1988 (147) than any other player. He hit .285 and led all DH's in hits (160), at-bats (562), doubles (39), total bases (234), RBI (76), intentional walks (13) and sacrifice flies (7). Baines, the White Sox all-time home run leader, also compiled a .416 slugging pct.

Other fine DH performances in 1988 were turned in by the Yankees' Jack Clark who finished second in the voting and the Angels' Brian Downing who placed third. Steve Balboni of Seattle, Rance Mulliniks of Toronto, Ken Phelps who played for both Seattle and New York and the Red Sox' Jim Rice were also named on ODH ballots.

The Outstanding Designated Hitter trophy has been presented annually since 1973. A list of the winners follows:

EARLY A.L. MVP WINNERS

The Baseball Writers Association of America officially balloted and named the Most Valuable Player in each major league since 1931. The earlier awards were known as the Chalmers (automobile) Award (1911-14) and then the league made the award from 1922 through 1928. Under league rules, no player could repeat as winner. The early winners are listed at the right.

TWINS' VIOLA WINS 24 GAMES AND A.L. CY YOUNG AWARD

Frank Viola—with 24 wins for the Minnesota Twins in 1988—won the American League Cy Young Award resoundingly, with 27 out of a possible 28 first-place votes by the Baseball Writers Association of America. The Twins' lefty was voted second on the only ballot that did not name him first. Oakland reliever Dennis Eckersley with one first-place and 14 second-place votes, came in second in the voting. The A.L.'s other 20-game winners, Mark Gubicza of Kansas City and Dave Stewart of Oakland, were also named on ballots.

Viola's ERA of 2.64 was third lowest in the A.L. last season. He had a nine-game winning streak in 1988 and led the A.L. in winning percentage. He also placed among the pitching leaders in innings pitched and strikeouts. Frank was the American League's starting and winning pitcher for the 1988 All-Star game.

The complete Cy Young voting table appears below.

1957	Any part of the uniform suggesting or imitating the shape of a baseball was not permitted.
1964	All players, excluding pitchers, were permitted to have letters attached to the sleeves of the undershirt.
1965	Catchers' glove size was permitted to be no larger than 38" in circumference and not more than 15½" from top to bottom.
1971	All players were required to wear some type of protective helmet while at bat.
1974	All players in the Majors without previous professional experience—or those players who played with a National Association club the previous year—were required to wear ear-flap helmets while at bat.
1975	For the first time, the ball could be covered with cowhide instead of horsehide—due to a shortage of horses.
1976	No substance, including pine tar, could extend more than 18" from the end of the bat handle, to improve grip. Shoes with pointed spikes, similar to those used in golf and track, were not permitted.
1980	Major League umpires were required to use inside protectors when working home plate, excepting any umpire already in the Major Leagues using the outside protector. All players were required to have 6" (minimum) numbers on their backs.
1983	All players entering the Major Leagues beginning with the 1983 season were required to wear a single ear-flap helmet, except those players who were in the Majors during the 1982 season and who objected to wearing a single ear-flap helmet.

AMERICAN LEAGUE STADIUMS

Eastern Division
(In order of seniority)

1. Baseball has been played on the site of Tiger Stadium since 1900. Bennett Park at that time, it became Navin Field in 1912, Briggs Stadium in 1938, and Tiger Stadium on January 1, 1961.

2. Construction began on Fenway Park in 1911 and the park was ready for the opening game of the 1912 season. It replaced Boston's Huntington Avenue Grounds.

3. Yankee Stadium in New York has been the home of the Yankees since its opening in 1923. The stadium underwent a complete modernization during the 1974 and '75 seasons and reopened in 1976. Original construction began in 1922 and lights were installed in 1946.

4. Work was started on Cleveland Stadium—the largest stadium seating capacity in baseball—in 1930 and completed in 1931. The first game was played there on July 31, 1932, but after 1933 the Indians returned to League Park until 1947 when they moved to Cleveland Stadium on a permanent basis.

5. Construction on Baltimore's Memorial Stadium—named for the veterans of World Wars I and II—began in 1949 and was completed in October of 1953 in time for the 1954 season.

6. The construction of Milwaukee's County Stadium was first proposed in 1920, but it wasn't until 1950 that excavation work began. Construction of additional seating brought the capacity from 36,011 to 43,394 in 1953. The outfield wall was constructed in 1960 and further changes came in the early 70's, increasing the capacity again to approximately 53,000.

7. The Toronto Blue Jays will begin play in their new Toronto Skydome on June 5 of 1989 against the Brewers. The Jays played their home games in Exhibition Stadium since their inception into the League in 1977. The Skydome will seat approximately 53,000 and will be equipped with a retractable dome.

Western Division
(In order of seniority)

1. Chicago's Comiskey Park was built in 1910. The stadium was built in great haste. Ground was broken on February 15th and was ready for play by mid-season of that year. In the 1920's the bleachers were expanded to raise the park's capacity to 41,000.

2. In 1964 Turnpike Stadium was constructed for the Dallas-Ft. Worth Spurs of the Texas League to play in for the 1965 season. Its capacity was 10,600. When the Washington Senators transferred and became the Texas Rangers, Turnpike was renamed Arlington Stadium. The stadium was enlarged twice since then to reach its present capacity of about 43,000.

3. California's Anaheim Stadium was completed in 1966. New construction completed in 1980 to accomodate the NFL Rams increased seating capacity to 67,335 for baseball and nearly 70,000 for football.

4. Ground was broken for the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum in April of 1964 with the first stadium event being held there in September of 1966. The 1968 season saw the Athletics come to Oakland and the Coliseum.

5. Royals Stadium in Kansas City was built exclusively for baseball in 1973 with the opening day being on April 12 of that year.

6. The Kingdome in Seattle began being built in November of 1972 and was completed in 1976. A year later the expansion Seattle Mariners played in the Kingdome as major league baseball returned to Seattle.

7. The Minnesota Twins moved to the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome in 1982. The Stadium seats 55,214 for baseball and about 63,000 for football.

The 1989 Major League All-Star Game will be played at Anaheim Stadium on Tuesday, July 11, 1989. The only other mid-summer classic ever played in Anaheim was also on July 11th, in 1967. The California Angels, host to the 1989 game, unveiled the logo which appears below to commemorate Anaheim's All-Star year.

The 60th All-Star Game will be the eighth Mid-Summer Classic played in the State of California. The first was played in 1959—the first of four years when the two All-Star Games were played—the Los Angeles Dodgers hosted the game. San Francisco was the site of the only tie (1-1) in All-Star history, as rain halted play after nine innings in 1961. The longest All-Star Game in history was 1967's when 15 innings were played in Anaheim Stadium. The 1978 contest was played in San Diego Stadium; the 1980 game at Dodger Stadium. Both the '84 and '87 All-Star Games were played in the Bay Area—San Francisco hosted the '84 game and Oakland the '87 game.

YASTRZEMSKI GAINS ELECTION IN HALL'S 50th ANNIVERSARY

Red Sox great Carl Yastrzemski, the last player to win baseball's coveted triple crown (1967) was elected to the Hall of Fame in January. The Hall of Fame, which opened in 1939, is celebrating its 50th anniversary this year. (Commemorative 50th Anniversary logo shown left). Yaz, pictured at the right of this story, played his entire 21 year career with Boston. During that time he played in more games than any other player in the history of the American league (3,058), while compiling 3,192 hits, 426 home runs and a .286 lifetime batting average. Also elected to the Hall of Fame this year was Johnny Bench the great catcher of the Cincinnati Reds. Bench, who played 17 seasons, all with the Reds, hit more homers (389) than any other catcher in history. Yastrzemski and Bench were only the 18th and 19th players to be elected to the Hall of Fame in their first year of eligibility. They both will be inducted during ceremonies on July 23, 1989 at the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y. Following the inductions, The Annual Hall of Fame Game will be played on Monday, July 24 at Doubleday Field in Cooperstown at 2:00 PM between the Red Sox and the Reds.

is credited for each day the player appears on an active roster or major league disabled list or suspended list.

in the case of a player called up from the minor leagues, is credited beginning with the date he physically reports.

in the case of a major league player who is traded and reports in the normal course, service is not interrupted.

in the case of a player sent down to the minor leagues, is credited through the date of the assignment.

in the case of a player who is unconditionally released, is credited through the date waivers were requested.

in the case of a player designated for release or assignment (MLR 2), is credited after the designation, through the date of the actual assignment or the request for unconditional release waivers.

for a player who appears on his club's opening day roster, is credited as of the earliest scheduled opener, without regard to the actual opening date of his own club.

is credited at the rate of 172 days per "year" though the season is actually 182 days long.

is not credited during any period or periods of optional assignment totalling 20 days or more during a single season.

DISABLED LISTS

Supplemental (15-Day)	Maximum:	2 Players per club (one of whom may be a pitcher)
Regular (21-Day)	Maximum:	3 Players per club
Special (30-Day)	Maximum:	1 Player per club (only used when Supplemental and Regular Lists are full.)
Emergency (60-Day)	Maximum:	No limit on number of Players (Players carried on this list do not count against 40-man under control limit. If placed or transferred here after 8/1, player must remain through end of season and post-season.)

Reinstatements may be made beginning Day 16, 22, 31, or 61 respectively; after minimum period has expired player may be reinstated at any time (except in certain "Emergency" cases — see above).
